About ABADA-Capoeira SF

The mission of ABADÁ-Capoeira San Francisco (ACSF) is to preserve, develop, and share the art of capoeira with integrity, and to use capoeira to enrich disadvantaged communities and the lives of people from all backgrounds.

Founded in 1991 by master capoeira artist Mestre Márcia Treidler, ACSF seeks to inspire and empower people — especially youth from disadvantaged backgrounds — to realize their full potential as responsible, confident, productive members of society. By consistently seeking out new creative ways of exploring and sharing the dynamic aspects of the multi-faceted art of capoeira and related arts, ACSF remains a pioneering force in the preservation and development of Brazilian cultural arts.

The Mission of ACSF's Youth Programming is to support healthy development through regular physical and cultural activities led by positive role models in a supportive learning environment.

ABADÁ-Capoeira Summer Camp

ACSF is offering six one-week summer camp sessions that give students an opportunity to learn the Brazilian arts of capoeira and maculelê in a structured and fun atmosphere. Students will also take classes with guest artists and instructors to learn skills like acrobatics, percussion, yoga, samba, and Afro-Brazilian dance, and will explore the neighborhood during lunchtime field trips. Sessions culminate with a Friday afternoon performance and party!

THE ART FORMS EXPLORED

CAPOEIRA (pronounced ka-poo-eh-da) is an Afro-Brazilian martial art that originated in Brazil during the slavery era. Capoeira combines dance, music, percussion, songs, ritual, self-defense, and acrobatics.

MACULELÊ is a traditional Afro-Brazilian dance played with sticks or machetes, created by the African slaves who worked on the sugar cane plantations in Brazil. It is believed that during their times of rest, they would practice this dance with the machetes which they used for cutting down the sugar cane, and the basic movements of Maculelê imitate the movement and motion of chopping the sugar cane. (For safety reasons, children are taught the rhythms and movements of Maculelê using plastic bottles in place of the traditional sticks or machetes.)

CAMP INSTRUCTORS

Antonio Contreras (Instrutor Corrente) ACSF's head instructor for the youth programs. In addition to teaching at ACSF's Center, Instrutor Corrente has been highly involved in ACSF's residency programs, teaching at several Bay Area schools. He is a member of the ACSF Board of Directors.

Miguel Hernandez (Instrutor Soldadinho) an ACSF instructor. Instrutor Soldadinho has taught for ACSF Youth Capoeira Classes, ACSF school residencies, and ACSF Adult/Teen Capoeira classes.

Camp Description

Each day of Summer Camp is different, building on the previous day's experiences and introducing new ones. Over the one-week sessions, kids will learn basic capoeira and maculelê techniques, as well as musical rhythms, instruments, and songs in Portuguese. Some days, guest artists will visit to introduce new forms of dance, music, art or educational play. At mid-session an extended lunch is taken at a local park where they can run, have free play or just enjoy the sunshine. Each camp concludes with a performance and party for the kids to enjoy with their parents and family.

Summer Camp is designed for and open to all levels. Classes are taught using games and exercises emphasizing cooperation, leadership, and skill building. Students should bring their own snack and lunch. New students are welcome! Currently Sessions I and II will be available to Campers online. Please see below for more information.
